Financial Report - Fiscal Officer Thomas Ackerman

Mr. Ackerman passed out to the trustees a report from the State Auditors. Trustee Reser asked about issuing 1099 forms to our independent contractors. Discussion took place who should receive our tax forms. Mr. Ackerman reviewed the report from start to finish and mentioned that the first thing on the list was year end reports. Mr. Ackerman reported he attached the wrong reports, but since has corrected that. Next on the list was deposits of public money of over $1000.00 should be made the next business day. That would require Bill and Chad to make deposits - that action would happen in the next month. Next thing on the list was buying equipment of over $75,000.00 needs to be bid out. It needs to be determined if the requirement is for buying from other government agencies. This needs to be looked at in a future meeting. The last thing on the list was concerning payroll certifications needing to get done at the budget meeting if Trustees elect to get paid from other Accounts than the General.

Trustee Reser read Resolution 2025-13 about Local Government Funds alternative methods of dividing.

Trustee Kusmer made a motion to approve Resolution 2025-13 accepting a new Local Governments Funds alternative method. Seconded by Trustee Reser. Roll Call Vote, Trustee Reser- Yes; Trustee Kusmer - Yes; Trustee Farmer N/A; The Motion Passed.

Trustee Reser read Resolution 2025-14 concerning accepting amounts and rates from the Sandusky County Budget Commission for year 2026. Trustee Kusmer made a motion to approve Resolution 2025-14 accepting amounts and rates from the Sandusky County Budget Commission for year 2026. Seconded by Trustee Reser.
